

CHNS and CHPS Report

NW Region

March 2012

Nancy Marsh, CHNS

Nancy provided information on tobacco prevention, bike and skateboard safety at Springdale George Junior High and Elementary health fair. She provided a booth on tobacco cessation, quitline, secondhand smoke and Act 811 to participants of the NWA Safety Baby Shower. She provided a presentation on Crying Purple at the Baby Shower. She participated in the Hearing Screening Revision Committee meeting. She participated in Madison County Health Coalition and Madison County Medical Group Board meetings. She contacted schools in planning for the School Located Vaccine grant school flu clinics. She provided information on car seat projects at the NWA Safe Communities meeting. She attended the NWTRAC meeting and injury prevention committee meetings.

Mary McCraw, CHNS

Mary distributed Act 811 and Smoke Free Home pamphlets and car posters to Heber Springs, Quitman and Greer's Ferry School Districts. She presented Emerging Tobacco Products to the Bigelow Wellness committee. She partnered with Farm Bureau to provide Car Safety Seat presentations to Family and Computer Science classes at South Side, Clinton and Shirley School Districts. She promoted Act 811 during the presentations. She provided a Bullying presentation to South Side School District's After School Program students. She attended the Conway County HHI Coalition and participated in planning for a Safety Baby Shower. She attended ATOD Conway County and participated in planning for Boost Our Youth. She contacted schools in planning for the School Locate Vaccine grant school flu clinics.

Miranda Curbow, CHNS

Miranda provided a presentation to Bost Human Development employees, CWJC and to CASS Job Corp on tobacco cessation. There were 250 participants in the CASS Job Corp presentation with 160 pledging to keep their home and cars smoke free. She provided technical assistance to school nurses on school located vaccine clinics, flu, BMI, immunizations, injury prevention, tobacco, and grant opportunities. She provided the Pam Stenzel teen pregnancy/STD/abstinence presentation to Mulberry/Pleasant View Junior and Senior High School students.

Cheria Lindsey, CHNS

Cheria provided a CPR and First Aid training which included tobacco information. She provided tobacco prevention information to area high school students at the Transition Fair at Northark College. She participated in the Town Hall Committee and Substance Abuse Prevention Committee meetings. She contacted schools in planning for the School Located Vaccine grant school flu clinics. She provided technical assistance to school nurses on various issues including BMI registration and Scoliosis entries into APSCN.

Christine Reifeiss, CHPS

Sarah Brisco, CHPS is on leave.